- Take in all the beauty of nature in the Kilimanjaro slopes with a small hike, and maybe plunge into the cold waters of the Materuni waterfall that come from the mountain.
- Explore the lives of the Chagga people in Materuni village, gaining insight into their culture and the coffee tradition.

Itinerary

DAY

1

Arrival To Kilimanjaro

Upon arrival at Kilimanjaro International Airport, you'll be greeted and transferred to Arusha city, where your adventure begins. Located in northern Tanzania, just below Mt. Meru at an elevation of 1,500m above the sea level, Arusha is the gateway for East Africa's most famous safaris, and is also a multicultural city with a predominantly Tanzanian population with a mix of backgrounds and religions. Arusha is also headquarters of the East African Community (E.A.C), the base for the International Criminal Tribunal Court of Rwanda (I.C.T.R) and African Court for people and human rights.

Arusha: History and Culture Tour

After breakfast, we will first visit the Museum of Natural History. Located in the Old German Boma, this museum is an interesting mixture of history, environment, and culture. The exhibitions take us through the development of humankind, nature, German colonialism in Tanganyika and the many different ethnic groups that inhabit this territory.

After, we will drive through Arusha to take in the bustling city life. Make a stop at the Arusha Declaration, the most prominent political statement of African Socialism.

Next, we will have lunch, then in the afternoon we will visit the Cultural Heritage Centre, a privately owned collection of shops and galleries that showcases art from renowned artists around the African continent. It is one of the largest in east Africa.

Finally, you will be driven back to your lodging in Moshi, surrounded by lush landscapes, this charming accommodation promises a serene and restful night's stay.

3

Materuni Waterfalls and Coffee Plantation

You will depart your hotel at around 0900hrs and head to the Materuni village. Start the adventure with a hike to the Materuni waterfalls through the coffee and banana plantations while learning about the Chagga tribe. Coming back from the waterfall, a delicious local lunch awaits you before you get to experience the marvel of the coffee tradition for the Chagga village. Learn about coffee production and preparation from the bean to the enjoyment of a cup of coffee cleaned, roasted, grinded and brewed by yourself in the Chagga way. A day you will never forget!
