SATURDAY (SLT Day 08)

Baños & the waterfall route

Today you will head to Baños, a small vibrant city at the foot of the Tungurahua Volcano south of Quito. Nestled into the mountains where the Andes meet the Amazon, the area is a remote paradise home to sweeping views, extreme sports, and plenty of local tradition.

Officially named Baños de Agua Santa, meaning baths of sacred water, the area is renowned by locals for its natural hot springs which are said to have healing properties thanks to various minerals, and visits from the Catholic Virgin Mary.

Your day will begin with a two-hour bus ride to Baños. Upon arrival, you will board a Chiva, which is a colorful, open-air tourist bus that will take you on the Route of the Waterfalls, La Ruta de las Cascadas. The road connects Baños to the Ecuadorian jungle city of Puyo, and has spectacular views of prominent volcanoes, low valleys, and rushing waterfalls.

During the trip, there will be plenty of chances to snap photos of several waterfalls, but a highlight will definitely be the thunderous Pailon del Diablo, or the Devil's Cauldron. Here you can climb down winding staircases and cross a suspension bridge for the best view of the falls - including a peek at the devil's face in the rock formation.

Adrenaline-pumping adventures

You'll then continue for a ride on the Swing at the End of the World, Casa del Arbol. Located atop a mountain, the swing offers a wonderful view between peaks and valleys. Adventurers of all ages can feel the wind rush against their face as they soar over the cliff's edge.
